EXCITEMENT IS IN THE AIR

Designing Women Boutique presents the author of "Never Fly Solo", LT. Col. (ret), Waldo Waldman. A member of the prestigious Speaker Hall of Fame, Waldo Waldman is a motivational speaker that leverages his real world military, sales and business experience into a transformational program that empowers leaders to take action and produce results.

This Hall of Fame Keynote Speaker, New York Times Bestselling Author, Executive Coach and Decorated Combat Fighter Pilot puts you right on the flight line and in the cockpit to experience how high performance teams really function under pressure.

Every motivational keynote and analogy is based on real world jet fighter combat and training missions.

There is no simulation.
